JNPT handles highest crude oil at its Liquid Cargo Terminal

Navi Mumbai - Jawaharlal Nehru Port Trust (JNPT), India's No.1 Container Port, has created a major record on November 16, 2016, by loading 80,640 MT of ONGC crude oil on a large vessel 'MT DeshBhakta', which was berthed at LB-01 of BPCL-run Liquid Cargo Terminal. This is the highest quantity of crude oil loaded on a vessel at JNPT which has surpassed the previous highest of 80,489 MT loaded on Tanker vessel 'MT RatnaUrvi' in June 2012.

ONGC's crude oil tanker MT DeshBhakta, which measures to LoA of 244.2 meters, arrived at JN Port on November 14, 2016 for loading of crude oil of Mumbai High region to sail ahead for MRPL refinery at New Mangalore (coastal movement) with a sailing draught of 12.6 meters. JNPT started operations at 13:54 hrs on 14th November'2016 for loading of Mumbai Region crude oil and completed it by 09:12 hrs on 16th November 2016. JNPT gave topmost priority to 'MT DeshBhakta' operations in order to give ease to ONGC's concern of having high stock situation, and handled quick operations to tide over the issue.
