

JNPT and Norway talk opportunities for mutual cooperation

January 14, 2020: Ms. Ann Ollestad, Consul General, Norway visited Jawaharlal Nehru Port Trust, India's premier container port to explore opportunities for mutual cooperation and sustainable development between Jawaharlal Nehru Port Trust and Port of Oslo. The two nations have always maintained strong and pleasant relations. Both countries see each other as important partner for economic development. A collaborative effort from both nations helps each other in knowledge sharing which further strengthens the maritime business.

Shri Sanjay Sethi, IAS, Chairman, JNPT and Consul General of Norway, Ms. Ann Ollestad had a detailed discussion on the key development taken by the Jawaharlal Nehru Port Trust and Port of Oslo. They also discussed about the green initiatives, technology advancements taken by the two ports & explore the key avenues for mutual support.

Further the delegation had a brief presentation about JNPT's overall operations, infrastructure developments, especially new initiatives implemented to promote 'Ease of Doing Business' and adoption of technology to improve the efficiency and quality of business at the Port. This was followed by a visit to the Port to look at the scale of operations at JNPT.

The visit helped the delegates gain a broad overview on the Port and its significance in the global market.

About JNPT:

The Jawaharlal Nehru Port Trust (JNPT) at Navi Mumbai is the biggest container handling Port in India accounting for around 52% of the total containerised cargo volume, across the major ports of India. Commissioned on 26th May 1989, in less than three decades of its operations, JNPT has transformed from a bulk-cargo terminal to become the premier container port in the country. Ranked 28th among the top 100 Container Ports in the world, JNPT is connected to over 200 ports in the world.

Currently JNPT operates five container terminals: the Jawaharlal Nehru Port Container Terminal (JNPCT), the Nhava Sheva International Container Terminal (NSICT), the Gateway Terminals India Pvt. Ltd. (GTIPL), Nhava Sheva International Gateway Terminal (NSIGT) and the newly commissioned Bharat Mumbai Container Terminals Private Limited (BMCTPL). The Port also has a Shallow Water Berth for general cargo and another Liquid Cargo Terminal which is managed by BPCL-IOCL consortium.
