JNPT holds introductory session on GST for stakeholders

Mumbai: With the GST implementation on the anvil, JNPT management on July 22 organised a curtain raiser session ahead of the introduction of GST from 1st of July. GST aims to iron out a multi-layered indirect tax system, subsume all other indirect taxes and usher in a uniform tax structure.

A briefing session was conducted by CA Vikram Mehta on behalf of JNPT for all the office bearers of the stakeholder associations. A detailed presentation was made on the impact of GST in the port service delivery. The overall feedback after the session was positive.

Mr. Neeraj Bansal, Deputy Chairman, JNPT chaired the meeting along with Mr. Sanjay Gangan, C.M. (finance). The session was attended by his team and representatives of different shipping lines including DP World, APM terminal(GTI), Allcargo Mover, NSIGT and among others. It was an interactive session where the impact of GST, benefits of GST, the GST law explained to the stakeholders. The whole session was highly appreciated by the participants.
